FUEL YOUR GAME FROM KICKOFF TO THE FINAL WHISTLE. WIN FROM WITHIN.®

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and think about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work strength it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete. State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA’s inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are “building character now ... for the future.”

As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Displays of good sportsmanship will place you in high regard along with your school and your community, and remind us all that, sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance. The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

1A CONFERENCE

No. 1 seed Mogollon (22-6): Four of the team's starters who were on the court in 2018, when the team won its first ever title, returned this year. Those players are this year's leaders, senior MB Jilliana Maner (160 kills), senior OH Hanna Ballesteros (96 kills), senior MB Tyra Parry (101 kills) and junior OH Isabella Horn (114 kills). "They know how to fight for a win and never give up," coach Valerie Reynolds said. "They come to practice every day ready to work hard." ... The team graduated its starting setters last year, but freshman Ellie Hancock stepped in, took control and ran the offense without a hitch. "She has great hands and always hustles," Reynolds said. "Her team can always count on her to get to the ball and make a good set. They expect her to be able to set quicks, shoots, slides, etc., and she has stepped up to their expectations." ... The team won the Florence Tournament this season and will be shooting for its fourth consecutive trip to the 1A final. "We have been successful this season because the girls on my team all get along," Reynolds said. "They are friends on the court and off the court. They have been playing with each other since junior high and they work well together. If someone makes a mistake, they encourage them and tell them they will get it next time."

No. 2 St. David (22-4): The team's biggest victories this season came against rival Benson and during the Florence Tournament, where the team took third place. ... The team's leaders are senior MB Jaylin Richardson, senior setter Kyla Trejo and junior libero Brylee Murray. "They have overcome different things this year and have learned to play as a team," coach Tylene Miller said. ... Recent postseason history: 2018 runner-up, 2017 semifinalist, 2016 champion, 2015, 2014 semifinal, 2013 champion.

No. 7 Ash Fork/Seligman (20-9): The team took first place at its tournament this season. ... The team's captains are Evelyn Acosta, McKenna Redig and Brittanie Cauthen. "Evelyn is a senior and was the only player on the first-team All-Conference team," coach Erika Acosta said. "Evelyn is an outside hitter and has proven to be a great leader. She is on track to graduate from Ash Fork High school with a high school diploma and from Yavapai Community College with an Associates degree in May of 2020." McKenna Redig and Paola Acosta made it on the second-team All Conference team, and Paola Ayala and Brittanie Cauthen were honorable mention. "The Lady Spartans have had a successful season this year because of their ability to work together with a total of seven girls," Acosta said. "They are committed to practice and making memories on and off the court." ... Ash Fork/Seligman has reached the playoffs the past five seasons.

No. 5 North Phoenix Prep (16-4): The team's leaders are junior Sofija Brnovich, senior Katie Herrington, junior Emily Lister and junior Becky Forbes. Brnovich started the season as a setter and right side hitter but was moved to the outside midway through the season. Herrington is the team's libero and leads the team in digs. Lister is the team's go-to player on the outside, and Forbes is the team's setter. "We attribute our success this season to learning to be more focused in practices, leading to being more focused in games," coach Joe Page said. "We also have done a good job of allowing our mistakes and errors to teach us as opposed to deflate us." ... The team's biggest victories this season have been overcoming the loss of four key starters and a sub from last year. On the court, the team finally defeated No. 6 seed Fort Thomas on the road. ... This is the fourth year of the program, which won only one game in its first season. But in its second year it reached the playoffs and last year it reached the state semifinals.

No. 11 Mayer (8-10): The team is playing with just eight players. "They have been united throughout the season despite adversity, injuries and lack of substitution availability," coach Kym Reid said. "Our biggest victory was to survive the season with just eight players on varsity and be competitive in our region." ... Mayer was a perennial postseason contender throughout the 1970s, 80s and 90s. But then it experienced a 20-year playoff drought. But the seniors on the team helped the program return to prominence. The floor generals are senior OH Belen Vega, senior setter Alyssa Spaulding and junior MB Gabby Colquitt.

No. 12 San Simon: The program made the playoffs despite splitting from Bowie this season, graduating a good amount of players last year and players moving. "They have truly meshed together well and are a great group of young ladies," coach Kari Wade said. "This group of girls have worked hard to learn how to work together and compliment each other on and off the court. I never have to worry about their grades or their work ethic. They push themselves to give 110% in everything they do. Coming from an extremely small school, our kids are pushed and pulled in many different directions with other activities. They stay dedicated and focused to volleyball. I love that they keep DLC (dedication, loyalty, courage) in their hearts." ... The team's captains are senior Nyomi Hernandez, sophomore Reagann Pavis and sophomore Stefanie keil, the team's leaders in hitting and setting.

No. 13 Grand Canyon (10-11): The school's faculty said the last time Grand Canyon was in the playoffs was 2003. The team is under the direction of coach Elyse Moreno. "At the beginning of the season we made a goal: to make it to state," Moreno said. "We won games, we lost games. However, we never gave up. We fought together and worked hard and slowly but surely we worked our way back into the rankings." Leading the charge this year is senior MB/OH Calley Scheller (), senior OH Cayli Mile and senior opposite Alexandra Trotter. ... The team started 6-0 and placed second in the Ash Fork Tournament.

No. 15 Valley Union (9-9): The program is in the playoffs for the first time in eight years. "It has reignited the flame for the volleyball program here," head coach Jenn Casady said. "All the credit goes to these young ladies for their grit and determination, and a big thank you for the help and support of all the volleyball families. It was truly a team effort this season." ... One of the team's biggest victories came against Immaculate Heart, which won the first two games but Valley Union rallied to win in five. "Coming back from being down two sets and winning the next three truly showed our grit and never give up attitude. Our biggest victory this season was upsetting the undefeated Longhorns."

1A notes: No. 10 St. Michael (12-8) put up a good fight but lost each of its final two regular season matches in five games. Andrew Ashkie returned to the program after a year off as the head coach. ... No. 6 Fort Thomas (17-7) is a win away from its highest win total since winning a state title in 2005. ... No. 3 Williams (17-3) is led by Loren Chism (team high 164 kills, 3.2 per set). ... No. 14 North Valley Christian Academy (14-4) is a first-year AIA varsity program based in Phoenix. ... For No. 4 Rock Point (18-6), JoAnn John picked up right where former head coach Melvin Arthur left off. Rock Point has won 11 or more matches in each season since 2015. ... Senior Faith Youkhana sits at 99 aces for No. 8 Arete Prep (13-8). ... No. 9 Anthem Prep (10-6) opened in 2015, the only year the school posted a sub-.500 season. ... No. 16 Red Mesa (11-10) is making its second consecutive playoff appearance.

2A CONFERENCE

No. 2 seed Scottsdale Christian (23-8-2): The program is the two-time defending champ. "Our season's success comes from the connection these players have and the love they share for the sport," coach Kim Ohlinger said. "It shows on and off the court with the fun they have with their team traditions and crazy-fun personalities. "The team strives for unity and playing with Bible verse 1 Corinthians 12:12 imprinted on their hearts. We compete with purpose every match and play all in all the time.” ... The team was seeded 32nd in the Nike Tournament of Champions but finished 26th. The team also finished second in Chaparral’s Birdcage Tournament, beating Chaparral in three sets and also took a set from Perry. It also defeated 3A Northwest Christian in a five set match. ... The team’s leaders are senior OH Taylor Raiola (Air Force commit, 1,000-plus career kills), senior MB Caroline Montgomery (hitting percentage leader, 4-year varsity starter), senior MB Janna Williams, sophomore setter Lexi Lambert, junior opposite Sophia Wadsworth, junior libero Kylie Lynne, and freshman Bella Anderson.

No. 3 Veritas Prep (32-7): The program defeated teams from every division this season and won the Chandler Prep Tournament. “Our athletes are ready to compete every night,” coach Brooks Dockter said. “We have great senior leadership, and this team has a lot of fight in them.”... Senior OH Averi Miller, senior libero Jessi Medlin, senior setter Ellie Coulter are the team’s leaders. Miller is committed to the Naval Academy, and Medlin is headed to Southern Nazarene University next year. ... Veritas Prep has participated in seven state championship matches, winning four of them. The last title came in 2012.

No. 5 Trivium Prep (25-10): The 5-year program reached the state semifinals last year and has never missed the AIA playoffs. ... Senior MB Sara Frankowski, captain Kendyl Holt and senior setter Emily Smith are the floor generals. ... The turning points points for the team this season came after a “rocky start” against Scottsdale Prep and rallying from an 0-2 deficit to defeat Parker in five. In their second meeting against Parker, Trivium Prep also won in five games. “The team has grown so much over the season with hard work and determination,” coach Beth Wilson said. “There are 12 girls on the team and each one of them plays in competition regularly and gives their all whenever they are on the court.”

No. 7 Phoenix Country Day (14-5): The team defeated 3A

American Leadership Academy Queen Creek this season in front of the team’s biggest home crowd this season, coach Kat Glaeseman said. Glaeseman’s program has reached the state quarterfinals the past six years. ... Senior MB Sydney McCarter, sophomore setter Lily Robinson and junior OH Hannah Drewitz are the team’s leaders. “Our team has been successful this season, because we’ve worked together as a whole team,” Glaeseman said. “We don’t have over powering players, so we rely on playing our system of volleyball, with solid defense and smart defense.”

No. 8 Scottsdale Prep (26-10): This is the second year in a row that the program received a top-8 seeding in the playoffs. Last year was the first time it advanced past the play-in game and reached the quarterfinals. ... The program took part in the AVCA Academic Team Awards. Libero Megan Manley spends parts of her summers with Global Rescue Project, which helps rescue children from slavery in Ghana. ... The team’s senior captains are MB Roma Baghai, Manley and OH Avery Waier. “We are not a big team in terms of height, so we rely on our defense to keep us in games,” coach Dan Chen said. “After losing five of eight starters, we have been able to plug in players and maintain success through a team-first approach. “We treat every game the same. There are no victories that are bigger than the others. Our goal is to go out each and every game and control our side of the net.”

No. 9 Parker (24-15): Outside hitters Demi Durham and Tatiana Cuadras have carried the team this year and are great teammates and leaders, coach Marie Maya said. “We are proud of our history,” Maya said. “We are a public school that has qualified for the playoffs in 19 of our previous 20 seasons. Our best seasons were three final fours and one state championship in 2007.” ... The program has qualified for the AIA Team Scholar Award the last four years. A team must have a 3.5 GPA or better to be considered for the award.

No. 10 Chandler Prep (26-10): The team’s GPA average is 3.89 unweighted. Fourteen girls are on the team. The program has reached the playoffs every year since its became an AIA member seven seasons ago. It also has two state runner-ups to its name. ... The floor leaders are senior setter Sydney Thacker, who was second in the state with 126 aces, senior OH Olivia Cadie and junior MB Evi Yates (.477 hitting percentage). ... The team’s biggest victories this season came against Horizon Honors, Glendale Prep and Arizona Lutheran. ... “Our season was successful because we returned a lot of talent from last year’s team, and they have gelled well with the new talent,” coach Anthony Jones said. “We also are doing a better job of being aggressive in games, which has led to better results this year.”

2A Notes: Senior Taya Baldwin is hitting .312 for No. 2 Thatcher (21-6). ... Senior Atlantis Jamerson is averaging 4.4 kills per set for No. 16 Phoenix Christian (19-17).... Rianna Haro-Orlando is four aces away from 100 for No. 12 Valley Lutheran (23-9). ... No. 13 Morenci (14-7) has so far won 11 more matches than last year. ... Junior Emily Darwin and sophomore Shaylin Taylor each have 103 or more blocks for No. 14 Benson (13-7). ... Senior Sadie Mecham is averaging nine digs per match for No. 11 Pima (16-10). ...Senior Monet Bouchard is averaging 23.5 digs per match for No. 15 Gilbert Classical (17-7).

3A State Volleyball Preview

By Andy Morales
azpreps365.com

With only one major upset in the Play-In Tournament, 15 of the top-ranked teams from the 3A Conference are set for the state tournament slated to start this Friday at Camelback High School.

No. 23 Payson (7-10) knocked No. 10 ALA Queen Creek (14-3) out of the state tournament with a 3-0 sweep in the Play-In Tournament and that victory gave the Longhorns the 16-seed in the state tournament. The shift in seeding moved Sabino (12-5) out of the last spot to No. 15 in the state tournament which means a date against No. 2 Snowflake (17-1) in the first round rather than a spot against No. 1 Valley Christian (16-1).

Valley Christian was a 2A powerhouse with nine state championships including eight in a row between 1993 and 2000 and the Trojans are back with their highest ranking since earning a 2-seed in 2012 and a 2-seed in 2016. Both of those high seeds, however, resulted in semifinal losses.

“Our volleyball program has been extremely successful this season for multiple reasons,” Valley Christian head coach Lindy Ramsland. “We are one year older and one year wiser. Our three senior captains Breanna Brooks, Abigail Calicchio and Megan Davies bring a great amount to the table and lead by example. The girls get along so well and genuinely want what is best for each other.

“We have always had a strong volleyball program that has done well,” Ramsland added. “I believe this current team has what it takes to win state. It has been a decade since the Trojans have won state in indoor volleyball, and there is no doubt that we have a good chance to win the championship again this year if we play to the best of our ability.”

The Trojans beat No. 2 Snowflake 3-2 in September and No. 5 Odyssey Institute twice but No. 6 Northwest Christian beat Valley Christian 3-0 on Sept. 24 to give the Trojans their only power-ranking loss of the year.

The Lobos are hoping to cash in on a very successful run over the last four years after a semifinal finish last year, a second place run in 2017 and a semifinal finish in 2016. The team will be relying on multiple team leaders to get them to the final match including Jr. OH Reagan Olson, So. OH Maceo Papa, Jr. MH Anna Berger, Jr. MB Marynda Caldwell, Sr. DS Kylee Penrod, Jr. S Maci Penrod and Sr. S Savannah Johnson.

No. 3 Tuba City (17-0) and No. 4 Tanque Verde (17-0) round out the top for seeds. Tuba City is led by Sr. OH/MH Jayda Chee, Sr. S Gracie Henderson, FR. OH/MH Melia Barlow, Jr. OH Mikeya Sheppard and Sr. L Emerilee Cowboy and Tanque Verde is led by S/Outside Ainsley Malis and S/L Bri Ede.

Wilson®

Wilson K1. The newest indoor game ball.

CALCULATE CONTROL

The ball's cover and lining combination enables ultimate control, helping you battle through sets with precision passing and handling.

BOOST YOUR POWER

Power lining technology transfers kinetic energy from ball to player, giving you the ability to deliver stronger kills.

LONG LASTING DURABILITY

Leather cover built to withstand intense trainings and extended game play.

Also available in extended color lines to enable more team pride and personalization
