FAN BEHAVIOR AT 3A BOYS BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

PHOENIX, AZ (March 2, 2011) – The Arizona Interscholastic Association, Inc. is disheartened by the images of Fountain Hills High School fans portraying unacceptable behavior during the Fountain Hills High School v. Holbrook High School game played on February 26, 2011.

The incident that preceded the images is also under investigation and will be reviewed by AIA staff along with Holbrook High School and Fountain Hills High School representatives. While the matter was dealt with during the game by AIA game management and Jobing.com Arena personnel, the matter is still under investigation for further action to be taken by both schools and the AIA Executive Board. The AIA will not comment as to the events of February 26, 2011 until the AIA Executive Board meeting being held on March 21, 2011.

The AIA expects both schools to provide a full report of their investigation and corrective action taken during that meeting. The AIA will comment upon completion of the investigation and corrective action process.
