Athletic and Activity Sportsmanship Award

- We discussed starting sportsmanship award for Arizona
- David Hines – Explain the Utah model “Raise the Bar – Earn a Star!”
- What would be our award name? (i.e. “Lead the Way”, “United We Stand”)
- What would be the requirements?
- Sportsmanship Code of Conduct for AZ
- Discussion of different state models, importance and ideas
- Our goal is to get all schools to have a unified understanding and use common language, we came up with the idea of a banner for all AIA sporting events that would be hung up on fields, in gyms and at all sporting events. All AIA schools would have banners. The same banner would be hung up at state tournaments. Banners would incorporate:
 - Code of Conduct
 - ExpectationsWe would be looking for banner ideas and designs and for sponsors to pay for these banners.
- We discussed the importance of knowing, “What is sportsmanship & What is bad sportsmanship”.
- Starting the process. We want to get this started. Taking the PVWH to another level.
- Idea of having an Arizona sportsmanship leadership conference yearly.

Sportsmanship Warning Card

- Sportsmanship warning sheet handout model used in Wyoming

Other Ideas

- NFHS Role of the Parent Course suggested or mandated
- Designe Arizona Public Service Announcement to promote sportsmanship to spectators.

Next Meeting Tuesday, January 17 at San Tan High School
